Award winning Chef, Chris Wheeler, returns to his roots

Chris Wheeler the ginger chef is Stoke Park's celebrated Executive Chef and he is delighted to be returning to his roots, coming home to make some guest appearances and help shape the menu's for the newly establish Pub Co. Lamb and Wolf, which now boasts four pubs in Dorset. The Nothe Tavern, Weymouth and The Angel Poole are renowned for their outstanding food offering, using local suppliers for meat, vegetables and dairy.

Originally from Swanage, Chris heads up all the award winning cuisine outlets at the luxury 5 star Stoke Park in Buckinghamshire, he has appeared on BBC1's Saturday Kitchen, Channel 4's Sunday Brunch, BBC2's Great British Menu, and in 2016 was crowned Hotel Chef of the Year at the Hotel Cateys. Every year Chris wows over 800 guests a day over 5 days with his exquisite cuisine at The Boodles, the pre Wimbledon tennis event and Summer Garden Party which welcomes the world's finest tennis players including Andy Murray, Novak Djokovic and Rafa Nadal held at Stoke Park.

Chris is now injecting some 5 star magic into pub food to make it just that little bit more extraordinary. Why compromise on quality and style just because you are in a pub? He will bring up to date some classics using some of Dorset's famous ingredients and will bring his own creative touches and skills to the menu, we look forward to showcasing these dishes to you.

The Nothe Tavern and The Angel are both environments that are welcoming and relaxed whilst providing excellent service and food at affordable prices. This family run business has its values set on providing the best traditional pub experience you can get but with modern expectations.

Chris will be hosting a ticketed dinner at the Nothe Tavern on the 23rd February and The Angel Poole 16th March. The signature dishes he has created will remain on the menu for the season and then change to reflect the spring's harvest.
